Ages 16 – 26 years old.

BEFORE THE EVENT:

- Fill out the Entry Form,
- Send a clear head and shoulders photo of yourself,
- Deposit $300 into the Pageant of New Zealand's bank account,
- If you have a sponsor, you will need to fill in the Sponsorship Detail Form and send to us,
- Your sponsor may send us a business card to be placed in the program.
- Create yourself a Public Facebook Profile page called YOUR NAME – Face of Beauty 2017 Contestant. You will use this page throughout your pageant journey.
- Commit to a one day training and get-to-know-you session before the final event.
- Create a 60 sec video of yourself and send this to me. Introduce yourself, tell us where you are from, what your hobbies and interests are and why you are taking part in this pageant.

ON THE DAY:

The categories that will be judged are:

INTERVIEW – NATIONAL COSTUME – TALENT – SWIMWEAR - EVENING GOWN.

Interview:- wear blue eans and a white t-shirt and dress it up with accessories.

National Costume:- there are 127 nationalities in NZ. How does the rest of the world see NZ? If you were not born in NZ, you are welcome to represent your birth country in this pageant. (Note: that should you win, you will need to represent NZ on the International Stage).

Talent:- a 2 minute segment and it can be dance, singing, poetry or mime – you are in charge of your own music and props – please try to get music to me prior to the event.

Swimwear:- can either be a bikini or a one piece – you may bring along a sarong if you wish.

Evening Gown:- a long gown to the floor and a colour and style that suits you.

What happens on the day?

You arrive at the venue at 9am, dressed in comfy gear. You will spend the whole day there until the show is finished. During the day, you will be interviewed by the judges, taught the opening number (dance), the walks and the talks, as well as be judged in your swimwear, talent and National Costume. There will be makeup artists and hairdressers there on the night. No one is allowed back stage to assist you in getting ready. THIS WILL BE RESTRICTED. Lunch and dinner will be provided. (Please let me know if you are vegetarian or have any food allergies). Bring all your gear, deodorant, jewelry, toothbrush, toothpaste, towel (if you want a shower), shoes, make-up you prefer.

What is in it for the Sponsor?

Your sponsor will receive advertising in the program and a mention on the evening. You will need to thank them on your Public Facebook Profile page, as well as a link will be put up on the Pageants of New Zealand website to either their website or Facebook page. Sponsors can also claim on their tax as a sponsorship and a tax receipt can be issued, if requested. Well worth $300.00 for the advertising.

Sell your tickets:

Tickets are $50 each and this includes a light supper and tea at interval. There will be a cash bar available. You will be allocated 6 tickets to sell to your family and friends who want to come along and support you. Please let us know the week before if you haven't sold all 6 so that we can re-allocate them or sell them to the public.

What does your $300 entry fee cover?

You receive entry into the competition, which includes lunch and dinner. Photos from the day, hair and makeup done for you, if you wish.
